THE LAST DAY.

Final Claims Made by National Party Managers.

Little Change From Former Predictions as to the Electoral Vote.

BOTH SIDES FIGURE OUT MAJORITY FOR THEIR CANDIDATES.

Gov. Flower Shows How New York Is Safe for Cleveland—Last Estimates From Indiana, Connecticut and Other Doubtful States—How Two of the National Candidates Spent Sunday—Hot Campaign in the Far West.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—There is little for the leaders and managers to do to-day. No new moves are expected, but sentinels in all States are on guard to watch the movements of the enemy.

Both sides voice their confidence, and so far as outward signs go they seem to believe what they say. The final figures given out differ in no material respect from the estimates which have been published from day to day within the past fortnight.

Chairman Harrity to-day will not alter in the slightest degree the prediction he made for the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, telegraphed Saturday night. He says all the indications point to victory for Cleveland by the vote of the Electoral College. In Harrity's table the national candidates are shown:

National votes in the South..... 150
New-York..... 36
New-Jersey..... 10
Connecticut..... 12
Wisconsin..... 6
Total..... 238

This table, with 6 votes of Michigan's 14, makes a total of 244. The other states are divided up between Harrison and Weaver. Only 22 electoral votes are needed to elect and the above showing gives Cleveland 21 more than the required number. It will be seen that he can lose Wisconsin and Connecticut and still win. Or, he may lose Indiana and Michigan's 6 votes and be the victor. It is practically conceded now that the vote of New York is essential to a Democratic victory.

The following is the guess of the Republican National Committee on how the electoral college will stand when the vote is counted to-morrow night; coming from a conference with Messrs. Carter, Clarkson, McComas and Kerec of the National Committee to-day Joe H. Manley of Maine made this calculation:

FOR HARRITY
California..... 9

FOR WEAKER.

One prominent Cleveland paper prints specials from all parts of the country and asserts that Mr. Cleveland will have on the basis of these returns a majority of 9 in the electoral college. It claims that Cleveland will carry this State by not less than 20,000 plurality, and it may reach three times that size; that he will carry Indiana by not less than 10,000 plurality, and may double that he will carry New Jersey by at least 5,000; that he will carry Connecticut by 1,500, and that his plurality in West Virginia will be at least 10,000.

PREPARING FOR TO-MORROW.
The State headquarters are practically deserted. Chairman Hackett has clung to his post to the last, and will not leave for his home up in the state until this evening. Mr. David Martin and his lieutenants return to Philadelphia to-night. Mr. Martin does not express himself so positively about the result as some of his co-workers. He laughed at the Disher story and said it was nothing but a "bare-faced campaign." He sprung at the eleventh hour.

All the Democratic National Committeemen will be on duty to-morrow at headquarters, except Senator Gorman, who has returned to his home to vote.

Excessive preparations have been made by the committees to receive the election returns to-morrow evening.

Ex-President Cleveland has special arrangements to get the returns at his residence, 12 West Fifty-first street, where he will be with a few personal friends.

The managers of both sides say that they anticipate a peaceful election, with an unusually full vote. They take pains to deplore the talk about possible trouble arising between federal and state officers.

Marshal Jacobus was at his desk at an early hour this morning completing his preparations for the great struggle at the polls to-morrow. Mr. Jacobus says that in his opinion there was no cause for alarm or fear of trouble at the polls. "My men have been strictly cautioned to avoid trouble and not to interfere with voters except to make arrests when directed to do so by a Federal supervisor," said the Marshal.

Both Commissioners Shields and Deuel will sit in the Federal Building all day to-morrow to dispose of any cases that may be brought before them for illegal voting. The Tammany contingent of lawyers will also be on hand ready to furnish bail in case any difficulties arise.

Senator Gorman did not swear in deputies this morning as expected. He said he did not consider it necessary.

CLEVELAND'S SUNDAY.
The last Sunday in the electoral canvass is used by the managers to get the candidates to getting a little rest after the long steady pull of campaigning. They lie abed later than usual, try to get a nap, and with the rest of the world get to bed. The bolt of addressing their wives and children as "fellow citizens," or "my countrymen," is a trifle later than usual yesterday. He has had a hard week of it with his speeches in Lenox, Laramie and Jersey City, and with a thousand confidences and a thousand secrets. He has had a good night's sleep, a short trolley ride in the forenoon he looked like a man who had been sleeping very well and uncertain life. Mr. Cleveland expressed himself as more than ever impressed with the belief that he would be elected. Mr. Whitney had called on him an hour earlier and said that he admitted that whatever doubts they had of the result were removed by the reports from this state.

Mr. Cleveland returned from his stroll in time for luncheon and about 2 o'clock he and Mrs. Cleveland took a long drive through the city. Mr. Cleveland was frequently greater by his acquaintances and in无人的。 His avens was kept busy removing his hat in response to salutations. The ex-President was dinner at the home of Senator Josiah Quincy, Chairman of the Committee on Literature of the Democratic National Committee, who was to speak at the meeting.

BOGUS GOLD DUST.

An Adroit Swindler Overhauled in New York

HIS SAMPLES WERE PURE BUT HIS GOODS WERE BASE METAL

Three Coffins Filled as the Result of a Two-Hours' Battle—Close of a Crime History That Would Fill Volumes—Five Negroes Killed—Female Physician Assailed—Crimes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Solomon Greenburg, the Russian Hebrew, who has swindled a number of persons here and elsewhere by the gold dust game, was arrested yesterday. He was arraigned in the Tombs' Police Court this morning, and remanded to await the arrival of officers from Pittsburgh, where he is wanted for a recent swindle. Greenburg swindled Max Goldberg, a Pittsburgh junk dealer, out of $1,750 by means of his gold dust scheme. Goldberg about two weeks ago was introduced to Greenburg, who represented that he was an escaped convict from Siberia, who had stolen five pounds of gold dust, fled to this country and became stranded. Goldberg had a sample of the gold dust tested by a referee, who said it was 18 carat gold. Goldberg then bought Greenburg's box of dust for $1,750, on which, if fine gold he could have had a profit of $50. It did not take him long to find out it was not gold dust, and he reported the matter to the Pittsburgh police who sent the description of the swindler to New York. The New York police thought from the description of the man that he was the same one who had played the bogus gold dust game on a jeweler here named Greenspan about a year ago. They watched the man's haunts and succeeded in finding him on Sunday.

OUTLAWS LYNCHED.

THREE COFFINS FILLED AND STILL ON THE CHASE.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 7.—The posse which started Saturday afternoon to capture or terminate the Talbert gang of outlaws succeeded in making some of them prisoners. But the Sheriff was taking his prisoners to jail he was met by a mob who exterminated the gang. As a result of the encounter three men are lying dead in combat at Fort Stephens, a small town twenty-five miles north of Meridian. John Talbert, the youngest one, has a Winchester bullet through his heart, while his father, Tom Talbert, Sr., has his neck broken and his body filled with bullet shot; Thomas Cole, a member of the Sheriff's posse, has a bullet in his brain, the result of the unerring aim of one of the Talberts.

The story of this family of desperadoes will fill a volume. Five years ago the family consisted of six, old man Talbert and his sons, John, Tom, Jim, Bob and Bill. Led by their father, the gang has been a terror to the law-abiding people of the country. About four years ago Jim, Bob and Bill were killed in a battle with a Sheriff's posse. The remainder of the gang escaped into the dense swamps of the Oktibbeha River, where they remained in hiding until three years ago, when they became more bold and renewed their career of outlawry.

Saturday night the Sheriff and his posse attacked Talbert's house, being armed with Winchester. The battle raged fiercely for two hours, when the ammunition of old man Talbert became exhausted and he was forced to surrender. The posse then started on its way back to Fort Stephens, but was met by a mob, composed of a thousand farmers, who overpowered the gunners and took the men up to a tree. Tom Talbert escaped from his father's house and took refuge at the farm of a relative five miles distant. When his whereabouts became known a mob of 1,500 men left for the scene for the purpose of lynching Talbert and his sons. I have the letter for the place, but news of a battle is expected, as the mob will, no doubt, meet with the posse at the junction of the roads twenty-five miles from a railroad station, and the only means of communicating with Meridian by courier. The last messenger left the scene at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

CRIME NEWS.

A FEMALE PHYSICIAN ASSAULTED IN INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—About 4 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Dr. Hayes, a prominent young physician in the northwestern part of town, living at 301 Northwest street, was aroused by a man who urged her to go with him at once to attend his wife, who was very ill. The man offered to wait and accompany the doctor and after hesitation she consented. She reached the man's home when at the mouth of an alley leading from Tennessee street the man suddenly grabbed Miss Hayes and dragged her into the alley. He was on the point of assaulting her when she screamed. The man was frightened and fled. Miss Hayes was choked almost into insensibility. William Cochran, a carpenter, was brought to the scene and the man was captured and was afterwards identified by Dr. Hayes. Cochran denies the charge.

FOUGHT OUT.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 7.—J. G. Beckwith of Orangeburg went to the South Carolina Military Academy with two friends on Saturday and called for Cadet McClelland. When the cadet appeared Beckwith struck him in the face and then, jumping on him, beat him flat lay and brought Beckwith to his knees. The two men grappled and when Beckwith had received severe punishment the two men separated over Beckwith with not allowing McClelland to leave his sister last summer. Both belong to influential families.

SLAIN BY INDIANS.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 7.—News has just reached this place from Alaska of the murder of four white men, whose bodies have been found at Point Barry, Kupreanoff Island, with their heads cut off. The steamship Sicily has been chartered by government officials to search for the Indians who committed the crime. It is believed that the bodies of six bodies have been found in the island, and it is believed that the Native Indians are responsible.

TURNED THE TABLES.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Nov. 7.—Gilbert Baker, a railroad detective in the employ of the St. Louis Southwestern and the Arkansas Midland Railroads, was tried here this morning on a charge of attempted murder. J. T. and W. M. Mangum charged him with conspiracy to wreck a train. The testimony cleared Baker and caused Mangum and Homan to drop the charge. Baker with warrants were also issued charging them with perjury.

POISONED VICTIMS DYING.

BAD AXE, Mich., Nov. 7.—The entire family of James Bradley, living three miles from here, are in a critical condition from poison taken into their systems through wall poison. Father, mother, three sons, a daughter and at least two of their children are now dead. An examination of the water shows the presence of large quantities of poison. No clue was held to the poisoner.

FIVE NEGROES KILLED.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—Five negroes were shot at a ball Saturday night and will probably die. The affair occurred on "Bobby's plantation" six miles from town. A crowd of negroes were gathered in the plantation, even with those who were.

A pitched hand-to-hand struggle ensued, in which five men were fatally wounded.

EMBEZZLER SENTENCED.

OLNEYLAND, Ill., Nov. 7.—Stanley M. Austin was this morning sentenced to serve seven years in prison for robbing the bank of the city of Olney, Ill., on Aug. 20, 1891. He was found guilty. He falsified the pay roll of the Union Nat. Co. and embezzled upwards of $60,000.

PAWNEES, plains, no matter what you call them, we say that those pants at the great rebuilding sale of the Globe, 201-715 Franklin Avenue, from $1.50 to $7.50 are the talk of the town.

Real Estate Interests.

Articles of agreement and a bond between the Central Realty Co. and the McCormack, Kilgen & Rulif Real Estate Co. were delivered to-day, which practically insure the construction of the proposed Colonnade Building on the half block of property between Olive and Locust streets, on the west side of Ninth, opposite the Custom House, known as Pope's Theater. An illustration for the imposing design of this improvement was published a few weeks since in the Post-Dispatch when it attracted a great deal of attention for the reason that the structure will not only be the largest, but most ornate of its class in the city.

Union Depot Matter Postponed.

The Joint Committee on Streets and Public Buildings of the Board of Public Improvements met this morning at 10 o'clock with the plans and specifications of the new Union Depot. Dr. Wm. Tassig, who had been requested to be present, sent a note to the Street Committee, stating that he was coming to the meeting, but that he would not be able to be present, as he had been engaged in the preparation of the "Anti-Subsidy" and asked that a postponement of the matter be made until some day later in the week. The matter was accordingly laid over until Friday next at 10 o'clock a.m.

MR. FISSE RETURNS.

He Expects a Public Retraction of Stories Against Him.

HIS DEMAND WAS ADDRESSED TO THREE SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

The Three Addressed Deny That They Circulated the Story—A Question of Loyalty Raised Affecting To-Morrow Night's Election—The Fight to Be Forced to a Finish.

School Director Wm. E. Fisse, who on Saturday sent a letter to several of his fellow directors demanding retraction of certain statements alleged to have been made about him connection with the School Board book contract, returned to the city last night from Philadelphia. Mr. Fisse was seen at his office by a Post-Dispatch reporter this morning.

"I was greatly surprised to see my letter in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH," he said, "as I did not think for a moment that any of the parties from whom I demanded retraction would give the letter out for publication. I wrote the letter because I thought it was the best way to put a stop to the story that has been circulated about me. The directors from whom I demanded a retraction are still the same ones that will not only be the largest, but most ornate of its class in the city."

"I wish I had a dozen boys," says she, when she saw that at the Globe rebelling school, 301 to 315 Franklin avenue, they are selling boys' suits and overcoats as low as $35. Mountains of fine suits and overcoats, $25 to $50. Just half of what others are selling them for."

Mr. H. C. Grawe's Denial.

Mr. H. C. Grawe, a jeweler doing business at 418 Olive street, to-day made the following statement that he had attended the A. P. A. meeting Friday night:

No RETRACTION TO MAKE.

According to developments of to-day it would appear that Director Fisse has fired the wrong tree in addressing the three directors named. Mr. Gis Blair was seen this morning and said:

"I cannot make the retraction asked for, as I have never circulated the story referred to by Mr. Fisse, consequently I have nothing to retract."

Mr. Brockman was not seen, but it was learned that he expressed himself on Saturday night regarding the matter, saying that Mr. Fisse was mistaken in charging him with having had anything to do with the spread of the story. Fisse had been up the wrong tree in addressing the three directors named. Mr. Gis Blair was seen this morning and said:

YOUR VOTING PLACE.

List of St. Louis Precincts and the Poll of Each.

VALUABLE INFORMATION TO VOTERS ABOUT TOMORROW'S ELECTION.

See Where you Must Cast Your Ballot—How It Must Be Marked to Be Made Legal—The Polls Will Be Open From 6 A.M. to 7 P.M.—Things Every Voter Should Know.

National, State and City officers are to be chosen at the election to be held here tomorrow. The Democrats, Republicans, People's party and Prohibitionists will all have tickets in the field. The election will be held under the Australian system, which requires that all tickets shall be printed on the one ballot. All tickets except the one he intends voting should be scratched by the voter by drawing three heavy lines up and down all the way through each. If he wishes to scratch any candidate on the ticket he is to vote, he must draw a distinct line through such person's name and in the space beneath write in the name of whatever man he desires to cast his ballot for the office. Where the man for whom he desires to vote is on one of the other tickets his name must be scratched on the ticket and listed only on the one ticket, which is to be written in the space to make the ballot legal. Should a man wish to scratch a candidate and not vote for any one else in his place, he merely draws a heavy line through such person's name.

Under the law, the polls must be opened at 6 o'clock in the morning and remain open until 7 o'clock in the evening. As the redistribution of the city has changed the precincts of a large number of people, and even the wards of many, a list of the precincts with the boundaries and polling places are published below so that every citizen can see where he will have to vote.

ARMY PROMOTIONS.
Enlisted Men Now Have a Chance for Preferment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Nine aspirants from the ranks for commissions as officers in the army have succeeded in passing the prescribed examination. Eleven in all passed the examinations by preliminary boards, but in the final examination just concluded at Fort Leavenworth two failed. Gen. Schenck is preparing a new set of regulations governing the promotion of enlisted men to be officers in the army. Heretofore selections from the ranks for second lieutenants have been confined to non-commissioned officers. Now the competition is open to every soldier in the army who has served two years, and who is under 30 years of age. This means that a larger percentage of privates will be promoted, and that there will be no chance for the civilian obtaining a commission, unless he first undergoes the military examination. It is also now understood that the examinations prescribed by the new regulations are to be even more severe than those heretofore prescribed for non-commissioned officers. Preliminary boards are to be convened in each of the several military departments to inquire into the moral character of the candidates before any examination, and another to determine whether it is worth while for them to enter the final competition. At the examinations, which are to be competitive, a single board will be convened at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

AT QUARANTINE.
How the President's Order Affects Present Arrivals.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Treasury Department's construction of the President's proclamation of September, which quarantines all ships with immigrants in the steerage or cabin for twenty days, caused the detention of the Hamburg-American steamer Suevia and the Hill Line steamer Richmond Hill in the bay all day yesterday. The Suevia has 248 cabin passengers. Among them are eighty-nine citizens and 159 aliens. Some of the latter intend to settle in the United States. The steamship arrived at quarantine on Saturday night. The quarantine officials inspected and fumigated her and fitted her to proceed to dock. She was intercepted by the cutter Washington and ordered to remain until she were cleared from Washington permitting her to go up. She dropped anchor under the shadow of Liberty, whose captain was not so pleased as it might have been under other circumstances to the American citizens aboard.

The Richmond Hill from London was also detained by the cutter Washington. She has a sixty-nine cabin passenger list and six steerage passengers, who are cattlemen. Sixty of her cabin passengers are aliens, who intend to take up permanent residence in the United States.

As the Treasury Department was closed yesterday all agents of the steamships could not get in order to receive them. They remained at anchor all night. As they have clean bills of health they will doubtless be allowed by the Federal authorities to go to their docks and be permitted to do so. Eight liners are due to-day with about 1,000 steerage and 1,200 cabin passengers. Among the fleet are the Aurania of the Canadian Line from Liverpool, 200 cabin and 600 steerage; the Dorothy of the Anchors Line, the Orion and the Empress of the Netherlands American Line from Amsterdam. Each of these ships, after being cleared by the health officer will be able to get the permission from the Treasury Department to proceed to her dock.

In Memory of Clinton B. Fisk.
COLD WATER, Mich., Nov. 6.—A handsome tablet in memory of the late Clinton B. Fisk, the Prohibition candidate for President in 1888 was presented by his widow and family yesterday to the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Fisk, after touching little speech, brought tears to the eyes of many in vast audience. The gift was accepted on behalf of the church by Mayor Albert Chandler, the president of the society in this city in 1888. The tablet is a bronze one and fittingly commemorates the memory of a good man.

ON CALUMET LAKE

The International Regatta May Be Held Next Year.

A WAY HAS BEEN FOUND TO DREDGE THE CHANNEL

The Iroquois Club Making Strong Efforts to Secure the Meeting—"Dead Broke" Wyile's Autograph Album—The Zimmerman-Sanger Race Off—Ring Gossip—General Sporting News.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 7.—Although the movement inaugurated by the Iroquois Club of this city to bring the regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen to Chicago next summer instead of Saratoga, is not meeting with the enthusiastic support of Western rowing organizations, it is making good headway. Some profess to believe that the Iroquois Club cannot successfully handle such a big affair as the 1889 meeting is sure to be, but club members are confident that they can manage the meeting in good shape. On the face of it the task looks to be impossible, for it is known that there is not a body of water within a reasonable distance of Chicago which combines all the features which to make a regatta not only a success, but a possibility.

The Lincoln Park course was discussed and found to be altogether out of the question. There remained but one, and that the body of water most dreaded in America by the oarsmen—Calumet Lake, off Pullman. Shallow and full of weeds rising nearly to the surface, it has proved in past regattas the bane of many an ambitious sculler whose chances for a win were good until he got his start into the holding mess immediately below the surface. Barring this fatal detriment Pullman might be called an ideal regatta town.

Several meetings were arranged between the Pullman people and the Chicagoans interested in getting the National Association to this city with the result that the latter would secure control of Athletic Island, which contains the grand stands overlooking the course. The committee made up the changes necessary to dredge the course deep enough to make fast rowing a possibility. Figures were obtained and it was found that a channel 300 feet wide and one and one-half miles long could be dredged at a maximum cost of $6,000. Dewitt C. Creigler, Jr., the leading spirit in the movement, has obtained a promise of $5,000 from the millionaire of this city in the name of M. Pullman, which practically puts the matter in shape to present to the Board of Directors of the National Association.

If the course can be put in the proper shape—and assurances are made by engineers that it can next year when we see the greatest gathering of amateur oarsmen ever held in this country—the Mississippi Valley, the Northwestern, and the Chicago Navy regattas will all precede the national championship, which would be given to Chicago to a certainty if the present plans are carried out, and there is no good reason why they should not be.

THE TURF.

Geraldine is one of the most remarkable of the sprinters. Two years ago she was sent to Fides in the neutral to Megan-rida at Morris Park. Of the competitors, Madstone is the only one now racing in good company. Fides is broken down, Blue Rock is forgotten and Fitz James has been retired. Geraldine is the only sprinter of her day now fit to race. Fordham and Civil Service are broken down, and the former is the only class horse around this season was Kingston. The mare is as fast as ever and she is running five furlongs on the coast in 10:1 flat twice a week.

SALE OF THE EHRST STABLES.
There will be a great time at Tapscott's in New York City next Saturday evening, when the Ehrst stable, the greatest collection of race horses seen in years under one roof, will be sold by auction. There will be at least twenty bidders for the most desirable lots, and when Sir Francis, Don Alonzo, Runyon, Yorkville, the yearling brother to Sir Alonzo, and other fine horses will be offered. Matthew Byrnes, on behalf of Marcus Daly of Anaconda, Mont., offered $200,000 for the entire string, but the tender was declined. The bids came from Frank Slavin. If Corbett does not believe Peter Jackson would be a good time to make a match.

Two of the heaviest winners at the Chynock-Godfrey fight were "Joe" Goddard, the Australian, and Frank Slavin, the sporting man of San Francisco, Calif. They each won several thousand dollars.

A San Francisco exchange says: It is now settled that Danne Neudham and Billy Mulligan will fight the 100-pound champion, with three rounds each night for three successive nights in Philadelphia, shortly.

Peter Jackson says that he is in just a good condition now as he was when he left with Dr. Griffo, but he is wedded to the idea of fighting the 100-pounder. He is who is sure to defeat him, when he could have made a pile licking lesser marks before he reached the very top of Pete."

PUGILISTIC POINTERS.

The "Interest" is that Goddard "lay down" to Chynock.

The Dawson-O'Connell fight, which will take place in San Francisco, has been set for Dec. 5.

There is still another stupid story going the rounds, viz.: that Chynock allowed Goddard to defeat him in Australia.

John P. Flinn, the 110-pound champion, will meet three times each night for three successive nights in Philadelphia, shortly.
